

Our Mission

‘To achieve our vision through influencing, connecting, strengthening and collaborating with our communities to improve mental health and wellbeing.’

Ordinary Member

Ordinary members are not-for-profit, non-government community organisations or groups, located in Queensland, which have a significant role in serving the needs of people affected by mental illness.

Associate Membership

Individuals are invited to join as Associate Members. Organisations that are not eligible for Ordinary Membership may also join as Associate Members ie. those that operate outside Queensland.

Join Queensland Alliance for Mental Health and:

- support a strong voice for the Mental Health Community Sector;
- influence Government policy on mental health;
- receive regular mental health news, notice of events, funding and training;
- support recovery and the participation of consumers and carers;
- stay connected with the Mental Health Community Sector across Queensland;
- be represented at the national level through the Mental Health Council of Australia and Community Mental Health Australia.

“Queensland Alliance for Mental Health provides a shared voice, shared information, collective action, and lets us know about the services out there.”

Our Vision

'We envision a community that values differences, promotes wellbeing and creates a sense of belonging.'

What does Queensland Alliance for Mental Health do?

- We support, promote and represent community organisations working in mental health in Queensland;
- We promote the human rights of people with mental illness;
- We influence governments to support people's recovery in their own homes and communities;
- We advocate for services that promote mental health and community wellbeing.

What do we stand for?

Queensland Alliance for Mental Health:

- believes in recovery;
- believes in human rights, social justice and universal access to health care;
- believes that responses located as close to a person and their community as possible will best meet their needs; and
- supports the contribution of people with experience of mental illness in forming policy and design of services.

Our goals are:

- social inclusion and community well-being;
- a mental health system focused on people's recovery in their own homes and communities; and
- easy access to information and strategies that promote mental health.
